

Law360's 2020 Health Editorial Advisory Board

Law360 (April 6, 2020, 5:30 PM EDT) -- Law360 is pleased to announce the formation of its 2020 Health Editorial Advisory Board.

The editorial advisory board provides feedback on Law360's coverage and expert insight on how best to shape future coverage.

The members of Law360's 2020 Health Editorial Advisory Board are:

David Dahlquist, Winston & Strawn LLP

David Dahlquist, co-chair of the health care and life science group at Winston & Strawn, is a highly sought-after litigator and adviser to health care clients focusing on antitrust litigation, merger reviews and challenges, and commercial litigation involving complex elements of unfair competition and contract law.

Chris Flynn, Crowell & Moring LLP

Chris Flynn is a partner in Crowell & Moring's Washington, D.C., office and co-chair of the firm's health care group. Flynn focuses his practice on complex commercial litigation before federal and state courts, administrative agencies and arbitral forums. His experience includes all areas of health care.

Deborah Gersh, Ropes & Gray LLP

Deborah Gersh, co-chair of Ropes & Gray's health care practice, advises health care industry clients and investors on sophisticated transactions and the implementation of value-based care initiatives. She also counsels clients on data privacy and cybersecurity matters under the Health Insurance Portability and Accountability Act as well as state privacy and security laws.

Susan Feigin Harris, Morgan Lewis & Bockius LLP

Susan Feigin Harris concentrates on the regulatory, business, corporate, governance, compliance and contracting needs of a diverse group of health care clients. She regularly addresses federal and state health care regulations, and works with state and federal health care agencies involving Medicare and Medicaid licensing, certification, reimbursement, compliance, enforcement and recoupment actions.

Kevin Khachatryan, Doll Amir & Eley LLP

Kevin Khachatryan assists health care clients, including providers, medical groups, independent practice associations and health plans, in a broad range of disputes and litigation. His practice focuses on health insurance, managed care and reimbursement matters. He is a licensed pharmacist and a commentator on health care and medical device regulation.

Damaris Medina, Buchalter PC

Damaris Medina is a shareholder in Buchalter's Los Angeles office, member of the board of directors and co-chair of the firm's life sciences practice. She represents hospital systems and other health care providers in high-stakes litigation in all types of matters, including managed care disputes.

Mark Polston, King & Spalding LLP

Mark Polston is the former chief litigation counsel for the Centers for Medicare & Medicare Services and leads King & Spalding's Medicare litigation practice. He also advises on Medicare regulatory compliance issues and defends clients in health care fraud investigations. Polston co-chairs King & Spalding's life sciences and health care industry group, which consists of more than 350 attorneys.

Raja Sékaran, Nossaman LLP

Raja Sékaran is a partner at Nossaman who has practiced in the health care industry for 25 years. His practice focuses on corporate governance and strategy, regulatory compliance, government investigations, Medicare, Medicaid and revenue cycle. He also advises on network contracting and managed care issues, principally for providers assuming payment risk.

Wakaba Tessier, Husch Blackwell LLP

Wakaba Tessier is a partner at Husch Blackwell. She specializes in the unique issues faced by specialty pharmacies, including mergers and acquisitions, licensing and other operational compliance challenges. She also advises health care providers, and both established and startup health care technology companies, on issues related to HIPAA, cybersecurity and breach responses.

Laura F. Laemmle-Weidenfeld, Jones Day

As a partner at Jones Day in Washington, D.C., Laura Laemmle-Weidenfeld defends a broad spectrum of health care providers and life sciences manufacturers against health care fraud enforcement actions. She also provides practical compliance advice under the Anti-Kickback Statute, Stark Law and other health care fraud and abuse laws.
